U. S. Marshal Hendry received $4000 this morning from Washington just in the nick of time. His funds had run so low that there was but a little over $30 left with which to pay the fees of the witnesses who have been summoned to testify in the Wynne murder trial. The money received will, however, put things on a better basis for some little time to come.

At the request of the ladies interested in the Castle Home fair next Saturday the Outrigger Club entertainment committee decided at a meeting held this morning at the Young Hotel, to postpone the afternoon regatta features and confine its energies to the moonlight carnival in the lagoon and the two dances at the hotels next Saturday evening. A score of canoes will be placed on the lagoon for the free use of those holding dance tickets at either hotel.

The following is the outlook as seen by W. C. Achil. He says that Nottley will beat both McCandless and Kuhio in the Fifth and will come second on Maui, with Kuhio in first place. On Hawaii, Kuhio is placed second, by Achil, with Nottley, first and McCandless, third. From this he predicts that Nottley will be elected.

Achil believes that Wise will beat Jarrett by a small majority, through the assistance of the Laborers and von Holt is scheduled by the labor leader to win from Trent, on account of his strength in the Fifth.

The Pacific Mail S. S. Siberia, Captain Dixon, docked at the Hackfeld wharf at 9 o'clock this morning from San Francisco with seventy cabin passengers.

The figures given out by the Republicans for mayor figure that Achil will come in second with 1,800 votes, Fern being third with 1600. Achil, himself figures on 2600 votes, 1400 in the Fifth and 1200 in the Fourth, Lane being second with 2000 and Fern last with 1800. The Democrats claim that Fern will win out with about 300 majority and place Achil, second, and Lane, last.

In the fight for County Treasurer, von Holt stated this morning that he felt sure of election and while he was positive of a small majority, he would not be at all surprised if it ran into big figures. In the Fifth he expected to win out strongly in the country and in the Fourth to get practically the straight Hawaiian vote. This will be enough to give him a majority, as he figures it and if his promised support from the haole element in the Fourth materialize it will be greatly increased.

When asked for a statement in regard to the Democratic prospects this morning Chairman C. J. McCarthy, of the Democratic County Committee stated that he expected to see every man on the County ticket elected. He stated that there was but one weak place, that in the fight for County Clerk, George K. Lowe, the candidate for this position put forward by the Democrats has been with L. L. McCandless on his tour around the other islands, and has spent little time on his own personal campaign, which Mr. Col. McCarthy stated, might allow Kalaupapa to squeeze in.

In the fight for Supervisor Cox appears to be a certainty with D. Kalaupapa, a close competitor for the head of the count. W. H. McClellan, should lead the Democratic ticket and will probably be elected as he will poll a very heavy vote in business circles. Logan will come up strong, as he will get the solid support of the Republicans in the Fourth, besides carrying many Democratic votes. On account of his long record in public and quasi-public life, he is probably better known among the Hawaiians than any haole among the candidates and is very well liked.

In most circles it is conceded that Jarrett and Wise will make a very close run for the office of sheriff, with Jarrett trailing very far behind. The latter will poll hardly any votes in the country and will get but a small vote in the city, it being recognized that he has no chance to win against either of the two. His fight will undoubtedly take away some votes from Wise, though it was started with the intention of beating Jarrett.

Opinions seem to differ in the deputy sheriff fight. The Democrats are sure of Charlie Rose's success, but it is going to be a close squeeze if he wins as the combined Laborers and Republican nominations give Chris Holt very strong backing.

For County Auditor the fight is peculiar. Bicknell won out by 330 votes in his last election and is against a man who has never mixed in politics before. His opponent, Anderson, has a great circle of acquaintances, however, and should run well. The combination of nominations, should pull Bicknell through flying, as the support of the Laborers party will be considerable in the country.

The Senatorial fight will be a hard one. E. W. Quinn, seems to be the strongest man on the Republican ticket, with John A. Hughes a good second and Henriques a poor third. Harvey should lead the Democrats and appears to be certain of election, even according to the most strenuous claiming opponents. Broad is the strongest of the Laborers candidates and Poepeo may be expected to poll a fairly large Hawaiian vote, but will have practically nothing among the haoles. Watson and Moore, the two remaining Democratic candidates for the Senate are uncertain quantities. Watson should run well in the Fourth, while Moore is said to be very strong in the city proper and also among the Hawaiians in the Fifth.

The only mix-up which is liable to be found in the ticket for the House will come in the Fifth. Here, on account of the expulsion of Kaea from the ticket there will be considerable cutting done. It is doubtful if it will extend beyond this, however. Correa made a good run last time and may be expected to win easily. Kalepou is a certainty and cannot be beaten. Ruel Kinney, with the Laborers as well as the Republicans behind him, should be safe and Matelua is apparently very popular. Kama and Mikalemi should both do well, though the last two will probably be hurt more by Kaea than any of the others.

Frank Archer stated this morning that Ewa would return a good Republican plurality. He calculated the vote to result about as follows in the district: Republican, 150; Democratic, 80; Home Rule, 50. This will mean a gain for the Democrats from the election two years ago.

The following is the outlook as seen by W. C. Achil. He says that Nottley will beat both McCandless and Kuhio in the Fifth and will come second on Maui, with Kuhio in first place. On Hawaii, Kuhio is placed second, by Achil, with Nottley, first and McCandless, third. From this he predicts that Nottley will be elected.
